Teacher of Drama with English or Media Studies

Required from September 2008, an enthusiastic teacher of Drama to join a highly successful faculty in this forward looking school. Drama is taught in discreet lessons to all pupils in Key Stage 3 and is a popular Key Stage 4 option. The school has a proud tradition of extra-curricular productions including successful collaborations with the Music Department.

The successful applicant should be able to offer either English to GCSE or A Level Media Studies. Applications from experienced teachers and from NQTs will be welcomed.

Verulam is committed to developing and supporting leadership at all levels and encourages applications to Leadership Pathways and the NPQH. At the most recent Ofsted inspection, Verulam was rated a good school with outstanding features. As a high-performing Specialist College we provide an enriching educational experience for all at Verulam, which is a very popular, 11-18 all-ability school (boys to 16, with a mixed Sixth form), situated near the centre of this historic and attractive Cathedral city. Verulam School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

An application form and further details of the post are available from the Head Teacher's PA, Anne Hanvey, anne.hanvey@verulam.herts.sch.uk, or you can apply online either on our website www.verulamschool.net or at www.teachinherts.com. Closing date: Friday 12 noon 2nd May. Interviews to be held on Thursday 8th May.
